

Green	Yellow
GREEN LEADERS bring everyone together. They resolve conflicts amongst team members and ensure that all team members are feeling good. Greens are great at building relationships within groups and creating a positive environment for groups. They are often seen as great "people people."	YELLOW LEADERS propel the team with action. They lead by example, motivating people and maintaining the team's momentum as they move toward the goal. They keep teams focused and can be persuasive in getting their way. They are often seen as reliable people who follow through and get things done.
Red	Blue
RED LEADERS use their logic-based skills to make sure that groups are being realistic and achievement focused. They analyze the team's goals and actions and decide the best possible way to achieve the goals, given specific conditions and circumstances. Reds do a lot of calculating, analyzing, systematizing, organizing and budgeting. They are great at providing solutions that "make the most logical sense."	BLUE LEADERS dream and inspire. They are the idea-makers, they approach problems in new ways and tackle tasks differently than others. Blues are always thinking, brainstorming, suggesting and looking ahead at where the team can go. They are often seen as "big picture" thinkers.
